

WILLIAM JOHN CRANDON - Private 20772, 9th Btn Somerset Light Infantry, Pioneer 247073 Royal Engineers

William was the oldest of the four children born to Levi and Ellen Crandon. He started school in Bishopswood, moving to Buckland where he was a pupil from 1897 to December 1900. He's listed in the Buckland School Register as the son of Levi, of Lodge, Buckland St Mary.

By 1911 he was working as an Assistant Gardener; Levi was a Road Contractor. There's then a gap with no source of information about his life until he enters the Army – or, more accurately, until he leaves it, when information about his service career emerges on the papers written up as it ended.

The 9th SLI didn't serve abroad, but the Royal Engineers that William served with as a Pioneer did. He belonged to the Road & Quarry Troops Detachment (R.Q.T.D.). He enlisted originally on January 25 1916, and was discharged on February 15 1918 with a Silver War Badge, showing that he was 'Unfit for service due to wounds received'.

Medal Roll Index Card

Without William's Service Records (destroyed in WW2) it is difficult to trace his army career in any detail, but it would seem, by piecing together various Casualty listings (quoted online by War Forces Records) that he was reported wounded on August 14 1917; the probability is that this was on the Western Front.

The Cause of Discharge noted above on his MRIC refers to Army Order 265 of 1917, Para 2 (b1):

“Discharged after service overseas in the Armed Forces of the Crown, on account of disablement or ill-health caused otherwise than by misconduct.”

Silver War Badge

William is also listed on Buckland St Mary School's Roll of Honour.

Late in 1920 he was married to Florence Underhay, at St Thomas, Exeter. They had 5 children: Leonard, Dorothy, Violet, Stanley and Joan the youngest, who was born in the summer of 1927 – a few months after William had died of TB on February 18, aged only 34.

Florence re-married in Exeter in 1931, to Ernest Saunders.

The campaign in Italy

This section of the Long, Long Trail will be helpful for anyone wishing to find out about the fighting in the little-known campaign in Italy. This was a forgotten front indeed: British troops were sent to Italy to stop collapse in late 1917. This movement was a brainchild of David Lloyd George and it was against the wishes of the 'Westerners' in the High Command.
